CRAVEN ANNOUNCES RE-ELECTION CAMPAIGN

(North Kingstown, RI) – Rep. Robert Craven, Sr. of Saunderstown announced today that he will be seeking re-election as State Representative for District 32, representing North Kingstown.

In his time at the State House, Rep. Craven has been influential in passing common sense legislation, such as codifying Roe v. Wade (guaranteeing a woman's right to choose) in Rhode Island, reforming gun laws, expanding estate tax exemptions, reducing state corporate tax, extending the statute of limitations for victims of sexual assaults, extending Ethics Commission jurisdiction over the General Assembly, and bringing millions of federal dollars to Quonset Point, resulting in the creation of hundreds of jobs in North Kingstown. Rep. Craven presently serves as the Chair of the House Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Craven has been a North Kingstown resident for 49 years, owns a local business, and raised his children in town. Rep. Craven has represented North Kingstown at the State House since 2012.
